

Job Vacancy

The Embassy of the Federal Republic of Germany is currently looking for a driver (m/f).

The job consists of the following tasks:

- Drive staff members and visitors of the German Embassy
- Do errands and deliveries upon instruction of duly authorized staff members
- Care and service of embassy's fleet of vehicles
- 45 hour working week (flexible)

To work at our Embassy you should

- be able to speak Arabic fluently,
- have good skills in English language, French and/or German would be a plus,
- have experience in working as a driver,
- have technical knowledge of basic automotive technology,
- have good knowledge of Beirut and its surroundings,
- be flexible and reliable, particularly regarding working hours,
- hold a valid and unrestricted driver's license,
- be fit and in good health (medical examination is mandatory before getting hired),
- have a clear criminal record (certificate of good conduct has to be presented before work commences).

We offer adequate compensation based on Lebanese labor law. The initial contract will be limited to one year.

The deadline to file your application (including motivation letter, CV and certificates) is September 9, 2018.

Please send your application only via e-mail to:

bewerbungen@beir.diplo.de